SWEETWATER COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM MEETING ROOM POLICY

POLICY

- A service of the Sweetwater County Library System is to provide meeting rooms for public, not-for-profit, non-commercial use.
- All activities must be open to the public. Products or services cannot be sold or advertised, nor are fund-raising activities allowed.
- Room reservations may be canceled to accommodate Library System programs.
- Facilities may not be used for private parties.
- Groups may not use the facilities for purposes of religious worship, meetings, or instruction.
- Groups must avoid advertising and publicity which imply that their programs are sponsored or approved by the library.
- The Library Director has the authority to deny the use of meeting rooms to any group or individual that is disorderly, promotes treason, or violates these regulations.
- The Board of Directors of the Sweetwater County Library System reserves the right to revise this policy or waive any of the above regulations.
- The Library System will make meeting rooms available to other government entities for the conduct of official business. This can include public meetings, executive sessions, and personnel hearings.

GUIDELINES

1. If your meeting starts at a time when the library is not open, you will need to pick up a key up to two (2) business days prior to ensure access to the building. A valid library card is required to obtain a key. Keys check out for three (3) days and may be returned in the slot by the front door.
2. Reservations for use of a meeting room should only be made by a responsible member of the group. (School age groups must be supervised by an adult.)
3. Rooms will be available during normal library hours; however, special arrangements may be made depending on approval by library personnel.
4. Groups are responsible for arranging the rooms for their meetings and rearranging and clean-up afterwards. Users will be responsible for any damage to the room or equipment. A group representative must sign a statement accepting responsibility and compliance with this policy.
5. Minor refreshments are allowed with consent of library personnel.
Alcoholic beverages are not allowed except with the permission of the library board.
NO SMOKING is permitted in any part of the library.
6. The Library System is not responsible for equipment or other articles left in the meeting rooms.
